

IGES Side Event on

“Lessons learned from CDM capacity building:
Is there a need to reform international and domestic rules?”

Date: 16 May 2007

Time: 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Venue: Ministry of Transport, Metro

Based on experience from CDM capacity building programme as well as issues perceived by DNAs of Asian countries, substantial discussion will be geared towards identifying issues to be solved and suggesting some solutions for the CDM.

Chairperson:

Mr. Taka Hiraishi (Board of Directors and Senior Consultant, IGES)

I. IGES Presentation on lessons learned and issues identified.
(20 minutes in total including Q&A)

Mr. Kazuhisa Koakutsu (Researcher/CDM Programme, IGES)

“IGES Capacity Building for Clean Development Mechanism”

Mr. Yuji Mizuno (Senior Expert/CDM Programme Leader, IGES)

“Need to reform international and domestic rule?”

II. Presentations by representatives from each country
(15 minutes for each including Q&A)

- Philippines

Ms. Joyceline Goco (the Department of Environment and Natural Resources)

- Thailand

Dr. Natarika Vayuparb Cooper (Office of the Natural Resources and Environmental Policy and Planning)

- Indonesia

Mr. Haneda Sri Mulyanto (Ministry of the Environment)

- China

Dr. Fei Teng (Tsinghua University)

III. Discussion (40 minutes)