

Towards a Zero Emission Tokyo

Governor of Tokyo
Koike Yuriko

Pursuing The 1.5°C Target

2050
Zero Emission Tokyo

2030
Achieving "Carbon Half"

2025
Mandatory installation of solar panels

Mandatory Installation of Solar Panels

Effective from April 2025

Next-Generation Solar Cell Projects

Pioneering the world's first megawatt installation of next-generation solar cells on high-rise buildings

South Tower

Uchisaiwaicho 1-Chome District Development Project

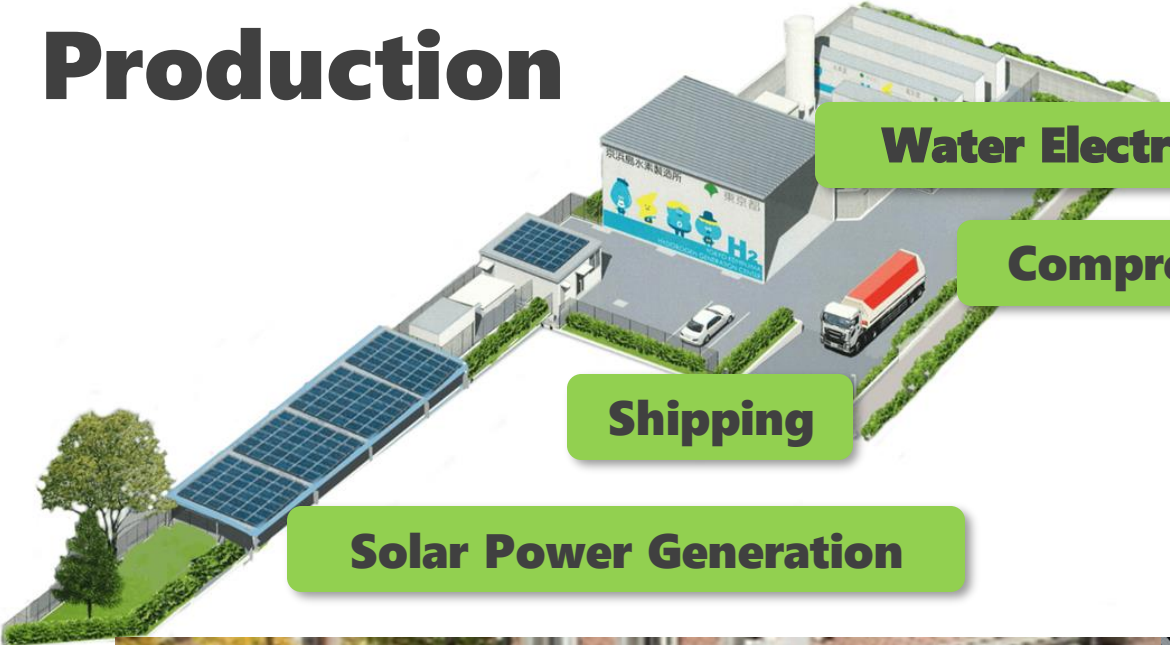

To be installed around the venue of World Athletics Championships Tokyo 25

Ongoing pilot project at Tokyo International Cruise Terminal

Broader Use of Green Hydrogen

Production

Transportation

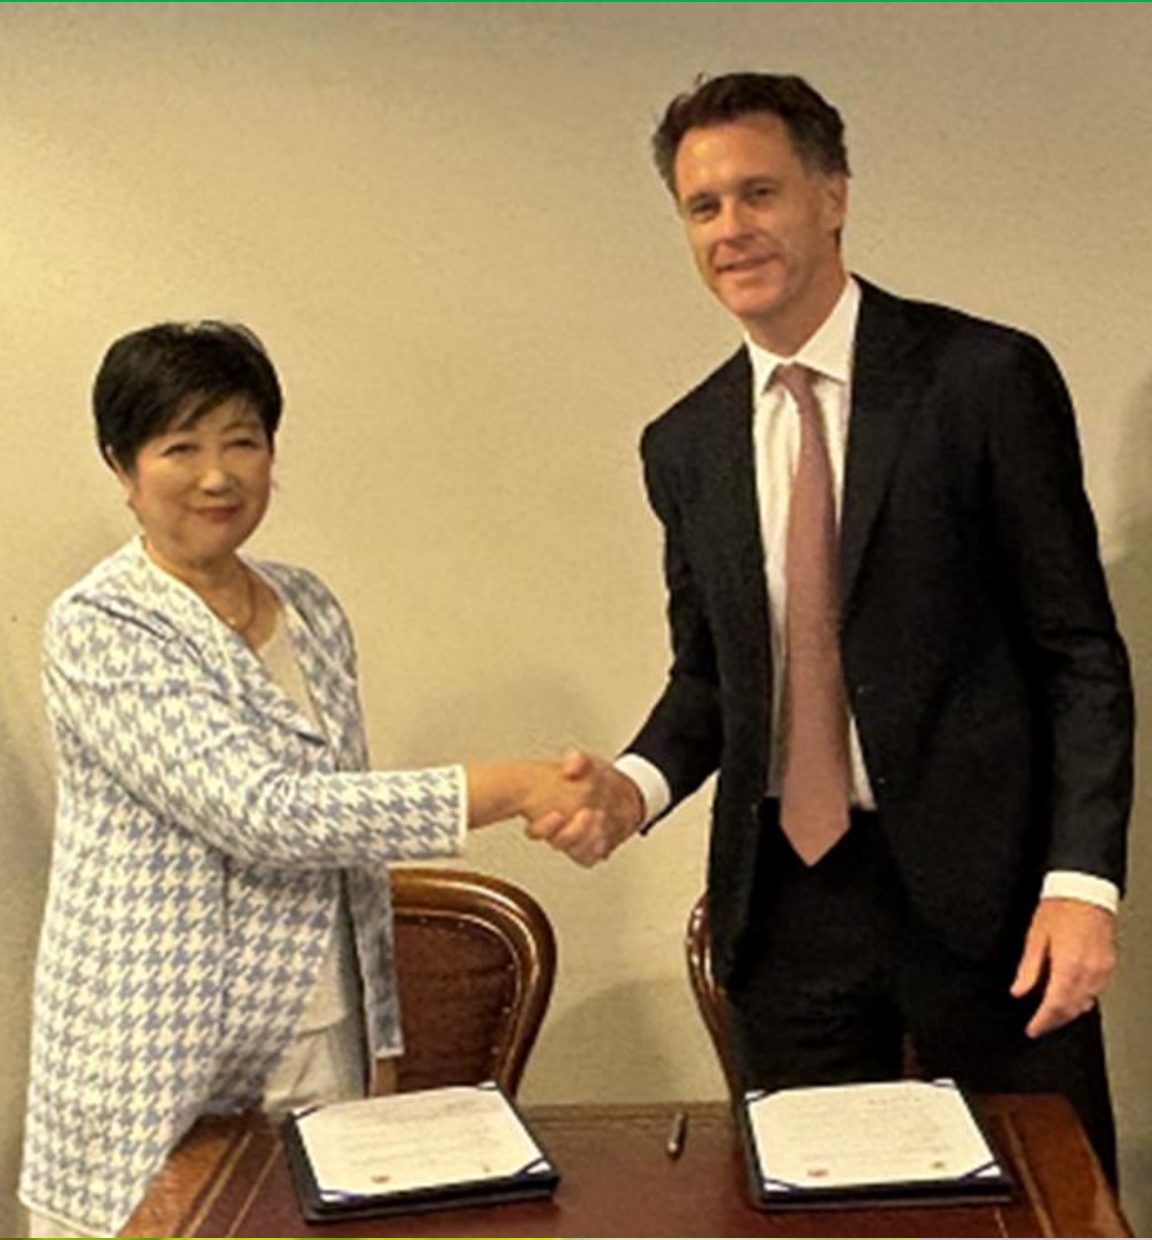

Use

Pioneering Green Hydrogen Trading

Conducting the World's First Market-Based Green Hydrogen Trading

Expanding Global Hydrogen Partnerships

TOKYO Resilience Project

Regulating Reservoirs

Seawalls

Tokyo Leading the Call for World Climate Action