MAKING ADVOCACY A LIFESTYLE TO THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN YOUTH

ASEAN YOUTH
ADVOCATES NETWORK

MISSION

AYAN aims to instill a passion for service and a sense of initiative to ASEAN youth advocates through volunteer-based initiatives and programs catered to supported advocacies. Through these initiatives, the organization aims to inspire the youth to take better action towards the betterment of their respective countries and ASEAN while continuing to further the achievement of advocacies through mobilization and sustainability.

VISION

AYAN aims to pursue the aspirations of ASEAN youth advocates inspiring ASEAN communities to uphold active citizenship and advocacies towards the integration of social mobilization in our ASEAN community.

To make advocacy a lifestyle to the youth.

ASEAN Youth Week

An annual celebration where we celebrate the ASEAN community through two weeks of programs centered on advocacies by the ASEAN Youth Advocates Network. The AYW expands to the SEA countries where projects and programs are being led by diverse groups of advocates from our ten country chapters for the whole ASEAN community.

A promotional poster for ASEAN Youth Week 2022. The background is dark blue with colorful geometric shapes (circles, squares, triangles) in yellow, red, and light blue. The text is white and yellow. It includes the ASEAN Youth Week logo, the slogan 'Bring your VISION to LIFE!', and the call to action 'Turn your YOUTH-LED PROJECTS into reality at the ASEAN Youth Week 2022!'. It also provides contact information for the ASEAN Youth Advocates Network and a QR code to apply.

Global Goals Week

In celebration of the fifth year of the Sustainable Development Goals or commonly known as Global Goals, the ASEAN Youth Advocates Network (AYAN), commenced the Global Goals Week on September 18, 2020. This week-long event consisted of the SDG Quiz Night where there were in-depth discussions about the goals via Zoom, fun and interactive activities using Kahoot, and SDG Infographics posted everyday for each sustainable goal on the social media accounts of AYAN. These programs mirror how the ASEAN Youth supports and advocates for Sustainable Development.

Democratic Engagement

ASEAN Youth Human Rights and Peace Camp

The ASEAN Youth Human Rights and Peace Camp (AYHRPC) aims to address prevalent dilemmas concerning peace and humanity. This camp will gather 100 advocates and activists aged 15-30 from ASEAN countries that will tackle real-life examples aligned to on human rights violations and violence through various activities such as a debate, discourse, documentary, and webinar. This serves as an opportunity for participants to increase their understanding about the subject matter, to insinuate self-knowledge and cautiousness, as well as to encourage action conveying relevant concerns.

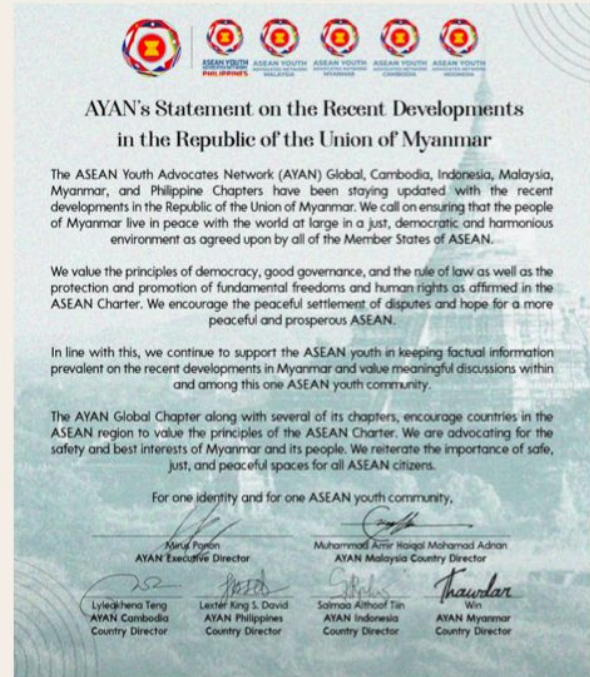

Democratic Engagement

ASEAN Youth Voices

It aims to be a platform for the youth to practice their freedom, and battle against propaganda and fake information that have been the hindrances to democratic engagement. The ASEAN Youth Voices is made for the public, where young journalists and aspiring writers work to publish articles that inspire discussions in Southeast Asia.

Community Building and Well-being

ASEAN Youth Cares

A fundraising movement which involved both national and international youth organizations located in Southeast Asia. This event served as the response of the ASEAN Youth to help affected individuals in the events of emergencies such as calamities, pandemic, etc. With the vision of reaching one Identity and one ASEAN youth community, this is the largest youth-led fundraising initiative in the region.

Community Building and Well-being

Waves of Christmas

Following the Waves of Christmas: A Benefit Concert for the Fisherfolk of Calumpit, Bulacan, donations amounting to over Php 200,000 were donated to the fishers of the partner community that has been gravely impacted by the supertyphoon Ulysses where boats were destroyed, and livelihood was consequently affected.

In AYAN's dedication to provide sustainable livelihood, the organization through its 2 project heads provided boats that are now being used by the community of over 70 fishers and families.
